

Visit by Claire Allan: Author and Past Pupil

We were very lucky to have Claire Allan visit the school on World Book Day, especially as our theme was women and we were also celebrating Derry Girls and our old school magazine 'The Habit'.

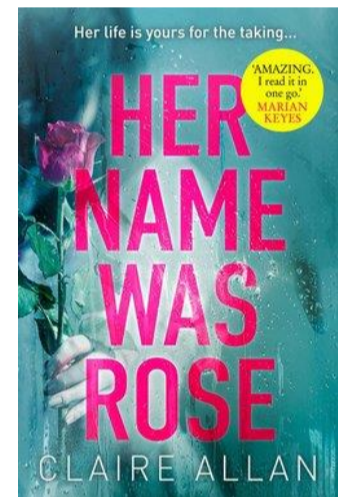

Interesting Fact!

Claire Allan was the editor of the school magazine 'The Habit' in 1994

We were very privileged to hear the opening chapter of Claire's new book Her Name Was Rose which is due to be published in June!
